

Nancy & Travis

Welcome!

Thank you for giving us this opportunity to introduce ourselves and to give you a snapshot of our family. We are grateful to share our story with you. We understand that this is perhaps the hardest decision you will have to make.

Please know we are very compassionate and understanding and supportive of you.

Our Story

We met in 2002 at a mutual friend's house, we both shared a common interest: CARS! In 2004, we met at the movies and realized we had many things in common.

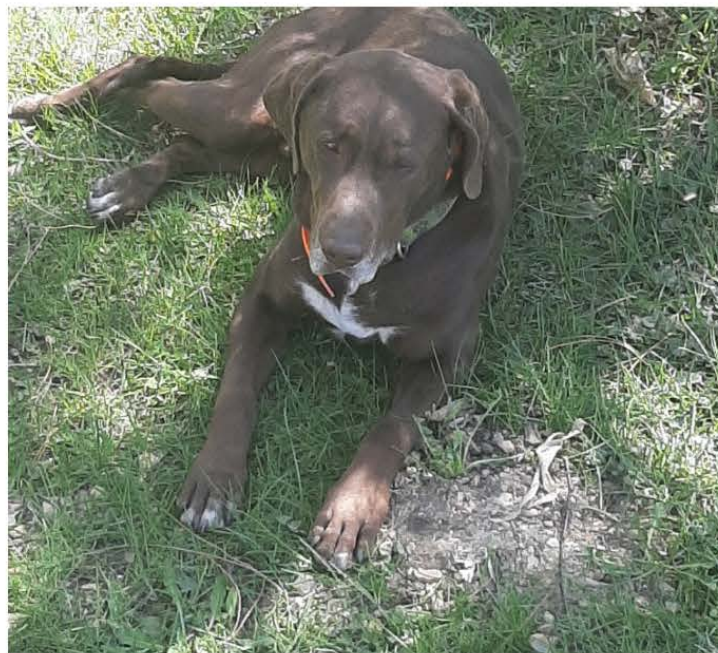

In 2011, we moved in together and in 2014 we got married. Our immediate family includes two dogs, Bo and Max, along with many outdoor cats.

We love getting together with our extended families on the weekends and holidays to play games and have some laughs.

We enjoy fishing, hunting, reading, taking winter vacations, movies, mini-golf, festivals, car shows and babysitting our nieces and nephews.
