

MICHAEL & PAUL

Hi! Thank you for taking the time to learn about us. We would be truly honored if you were to consider us as adoptive parents for your child. We can only imagine the magnitude of courage, love, and trust behind your decision!

Should you choose us, we would embrace an open adoption plan at whatever level you're comfortable. As you get to know us, you'll learn that our home is a place where curiosity is celebrated, authenticity is encouraged, and every day is an opportunity for growth and joy. Surrounded by a group of caring family and friends, your child will be embraced by a community that believes in lifting each other up. We promise to nurture your child with unwavering support, love, and warmth.

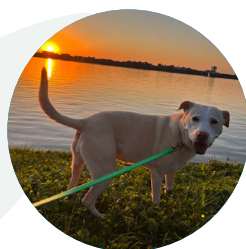

Our relationship began in early 2020, and we quickly became the lifelong partners we had both been searching for; someone to explore the world with and build a life together. We enjoy staying active, traveling around the world, and seeking new experiences. We live in Southwest Minneapolis with our four gentle and loving dogs. We both have a strong desire to be dads, so growing our family feels like the natural next step in our story. We're truly excited to embrace the challenges and rewards of parenthood together and can't wait for this next chapter!

About Paul

(By Michael)

Paul keeps me grounded and focused, and I know he'll exhibit that same strength for our child as our family grows. I've seen him face adversity and achieve goals that once seemed impossible, always maintaining a calm and steady outlook. I'm so excited to see Paul become a dad and share his passions: running, trivia, social justice, and finding joy in simple things.

share that curiosity and love for adventure with a child. With large extended families on both sides, we can't wait for our kid to grow up with so much love, support, and connection.

Thank you for considering us to be adoptive parents for your child. We would love to hear from you and learn about your story.

About Michael

(By Paul)

He brings laughter wherever he goes with a whimsical sense of humor that makes ordinary moments feel magical. His deeply caring heart is something he's shown since he became an uncle, a role he's always taken seriously. He's been a steady, loving presence in the lives of his nieces and nephew, earning their adoration through fun and support. Already, he has crocheted blankets and stuffed animals for our future baby. Getting lost in a puzzle, playing sports, and cooking up delicious food, Michael puts care and creativity into everything he does.

A Day in our Life

We both work from home - Paul in product management and Michael in marketing - which gives us the flexibility to build a life centered around our family and the things we love. We enjoy biking around town, playing in recreational sports leagues, and exploring museums and new places. We also love cheering on our favorite sports teams, traveling near and far, and we're excited to
